

Clip: 1 of 1

Artist's resonance

An art-cum-theatre event titled 409 Ramkinkars opened at the Indira Gandhi National Centre recently. The ongoing event seeks to relive the life of Ramkinkar Baij, one of the pioneers of modern Indian sculpture and a key figure of contextual modernism. This presentation brings together artworks and theatre performance of veterans like Vivan Sundaram and Anuradha Kapur. The featured artists have synthesised a diverse range of forms, media and genres into a composite whole. Dipali Khanna, Member Secretary, IGNC, says, "The entire sequence highlights the significance of Ramkinkar's life in today's scenario which will invoke historical resonance of space, time and music."