The Entire the exhibition co-ordinated by and Dr.K.T.V. Raghavan, Assistant professor, RCP and Mr. Radja Perumal, Project Assistant, RCP with support of other staff members.

The objects displayed in this exhibition and the visual aspects

This exhibition is a humble attempt to describe the lives of many freedom fighters from Tamil Nadu who participated in India's freedom movement.

131 illustrated posters were displayed in the exhibition to commemorate great services of The Patriots who born in Tamilnadu, Pondicherry region and India's 75th Independence Day.

The illustrated posters were prepared with research descriptions and the logo of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav.

Through this exhibition we have been able to inform the world about the efforts of freedom fighters of India, who born in Tamil land and their social ideals for India's independence.

Apart from that, on the occasion of India's 75th Independence Day we were able to bring to light the sacrifices of the Indian freedom fighters from Tamilnadu. The response from the public after the completion of exhibition was very remarkable.
