

Shastra Utsava
(Performative Texts and Traditions of North-East India)
28th and 29th of March 2016

Distinguished scholars, well-trained traditional artistes and grand masters are being invited from North-East and other places for scholarly presentations and evening performances.

For this event, noted institutions from Varanasi like Banaras Hindu University (celebrating the Centenary of its establishment), Jnana Pravaha and Parshvanath Vidyapeeth are also providing their active collaboration.

Programme

Two day Seminar on Performative Texts and Traditions of North-East India

Time: 10.30 am onwards till 5:00 pm

Seminar Venue: Day-1: Parshvanath Vidyapeeth, ITI Road, Karaundi, (Adjacent to Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi)

Seminar Venue: Day-2: Jnana Pravaha, Varanasi

- In the Seminar, a group of noted scholars will deliberate on various aspects of Sanskrit/ north-eastern artistic texts and their influence on the performative traditions of the region.

Evening Performances: 6:00 pm onwards at Swantrata Bhavan, B.H.U., Varanasi (both evenings)

28th of March 2016

Sri Rama Vijaya Natakam will be presented in Ankia Nat-Bhaona form.

Director: Sh. Dulal Roy. Presentation: Sattriya Kendra, Guwahati.

29th of March 2016

Sattriya dance Presentation: Sattriya Kendra, Guwahati.

RSVP:

Dr. Sushma Jatoo, Coordinator (Shastra & Prayoga Programme), 0 981 198 3047

Email: sushma.jatoo@gmail.com

Dr. Sudhir Lall, Coordinator (IGNCA-ERC), 0986 822 9069,

Email: sudhirlall@gmail.com