

Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts and the Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, Haryana are hosting an exhibition “ Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore: A visionary, artist and poet’ at the Museum and Art Gallery, Dept. of Fine Arts of the university. The exhibition was inaugurated by Lt. Gen. (Dr.) D.D.S. Sandu DPVSM, ADC (Retd). Vice Chancellor, Kurukshetra University, on 17 November and will be open till 27 November. Dr. P.R.Goswami, Director (KN), IGNC A was guest of honour at the inauguration. The Vice Chancellor appreciated the exhibition and emphasized that all the departments of the university should visit and benefit from the exhibition. Prof. Ram Viranjan, Chairman, Fine Art Dept, Kurushetra University, congratulated IGNC A for its role in propagation and dissemination of various forms of art. He urged IGNC A to continue collaborating with the university so the students can take benefit of the research work being conducted at IGNC A. The exhibition has been curated by Mr. Virendra Bangroo, Asst. Prof, IGNC A.

कुरुक्षेत्र | प्रदर्शनी का अवलोकन करते वीसी डॉ. डीडीएस संधू।

