

Report on the Lecture by Shri. Sudesh Mahan

Date: 19th August 2016, Venue: Seminar Hall, IGNCA SRC Campus

Making of an Artists – Experience, Environment and Expression

IGNCA SRC, Bangalore as part of Samskriti Smarane Monthly Lecture Series, Sh. Sudesh Mahan, Eminent Contemporary Artist and Poet delivered a participatory lecture on the topic – “Making of an Artist – Experience, Environment and Expression” on Friday 19th August 2016. During the lecture Sh. Mahan shared some of his exquisite experience as an artist and the hindrance he confronted from various quarters of the society – from Home, Colleges and Industry.

Shri. Sudesh expanded to all facets of art as he very strongly believed that the environment gives ample experience to emerge as potential artist. “I worked as set designer for Kannada theatre, Ad agencies, Banners etc. Thanks to those opportunities because it kept the artists in me alive. The drive of an artist must extent to all the forms of art forms as it can make him complete artists” said Shri. Mahan.

Some of his most desired poems were read out that also triggered participation from the audience.

Dr. (Smt.) Deepti Navaratna, Executive Director, IGNCA SRC graced the occasion. Students from Bangalore University, National School of Drama, Degree Colleges and Art enthusiasts participated in the lecture.

