

Report on Samskruthi Smarane

Translations: Trends and Tips (translators bias)

Date: 18th Nov 2016

Venue: Seminar Hall, IGNCA SRC, Bengaluru

Dr. C N Ramachadran, gave a participatory lecture as part of Samskruthi Smarane Monthly lecture held every third of the month at IGNCA SRC.

Elucidating the various nuance of Translation Dr. CNR said “Every translator must be honest and express his respect and gratitude to the original text and the author. As translators, we may confront several cultural challenges while translating, but have to show complete commitment to the original text”.

The lecture was attended and appreciated by students of Baduku Community College and Dept. Of Kannada, Bangalore University and scholars in the field of Translation like Smt. Chaya Bhagavati, Dr. Dinesh and Dr. H S M Prakash were a part of the participants. Prof. P V Krishna Bhatta, Academic Advisor and Dr. Deepti Navaratna, Executive Director, IGNCA SRC graced the occasion.

